CARUNNAI HOME FOR CHILDREN WITH INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

(Regd. No.285/02)

No.30, 3rd Main Road, Chellappu Nagar, Reddiarpalayam, Puducherry - 605 010.

Ph : 0413-2292916, Cell : 9443632645, 9442932645

E-mail : carunnai@gmail.com / www.carunnai school for the mentally challenged

Date 09.11.2021

To whom it may concern

Camellia Magdelene Vimala was an intern here at Carunnai home for children with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and was part of the system for 6 months - 200 hours.

During her time as an intern she endeared herself to all the other employees and subjects alike and lifted the spirits all around. Her cheerfulness was as effective as her acumen and it was brought out to the best effect throughout her time here. As an intern she worked closely with me on subjects and was a fast/avid learner.

We work closely with children and through Psychodynamic Psychotherapy we attempt to understand issues that motivate and influence a child's behaviour, thoughts and feelings. It can help identify a child's typical behavioral patterns, cognitive defenses and responses to conflicts, within and around. An important part of the work we do here has to do with making children feel comfortable and at ease. Camellia's amicable attitude coupled with her training and knowledge about the field proved to be an immense strength in her approach with the subjects.

We are also involved in Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT) for young developmentally/intellectually disabled subjects. A big part of this therapy involves understanding the emotional struggles towards committing to a positive change. Camellia participated in this therapy too and her work with the subjects was beyond commendable given her experience.

One of the biggest strengths of Camellia is her attitude. Something that in my opinion goes above and beyond and adds to technical knowledge and expertise (something that she is working hard for.) I feel confident that Camellia will achieve her aspirations in the field and am glad about the time she spent with us and would be honored to recommend her strongly to help her with her future endeavors.

We would like to wish her all the best for her future.
