Mrs. ADHILAKSHMI LOGAMURTHY

Advocate – Madras High Court

VP Women Lawyers' Association – Tamil Nadu

THE GUEST BEING HONOURED BY THE VICE PRINCIPAL

Under the auspices of the Department of History Tourism and Travel Management, Ethiraj College for Women, a Guest lecture has been arranged on the topic "Women and Social Legislations" for the students of final year UG and PG History as it forms a part of their curriculum.

Mrs. Adhilakshmi Logamurthy, an eminent lawyer and a social activist was invited to present the lecture. Apart from being a lawyer, she is a lifetime member in National Federation of Women's Law, she is the Vice President and Secretary of Women Law Association, also served as the vice-president of the same. She is a trainer in Indian Addicted Ltd., and conducts various legal awareness programmes. She has been honoured by the Indo-Russian Association as the "Women Achiever" and holds many honorary awards from various reputed organizations. She started the lecture by giving some basic concepts found in our Indian Constitution. She spoke about the Preamble, Fundamental Rights and the entered on to the laws that are available for women in our Constitution.

Students were exposed to some of the important women centered legislations such as:

- 1) Article 15(3) – Special provisions for new laws and amendments for women and children,
- 2) Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005,
- 3) Some of the Indian Penal Code sections,
- 4) Women Harassment Law of 2002,
- 5) Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961,
- 6) Other family laws regarding Marriage, divorce etc.,

Special mention was made about the Sarikha Shah case, who was a former student of the Ethiraj College and how her sexual harassment has led to the framing of the Women Harassment Law of 2002.

Then the Protection of women from Domestic Violence and the Dowry Prohibition Acts were explained in detail with the ways and methods in which an affected woman can use these legislations. The explanations on the different types of violence, the proceedings of the court, orders given by the Court etc., were very helpful for the students in understanding the practicality of Women related social legislations. She also gave a photocopy to all the students regarding the “Sections and grounds for matrimonial reliefs and marriage laws” and explained all of them in detail.

The Entire session was very interactive because she was constantly asking questions to the students who in turn were answering enthusiastically. A case study competition was conducted where the students were given a real judgments and brainstorm on the case.

The Second day started with her explaining the survey of the United Nations Organisation regarding women that shows the percentage of women who are working, salaried and who holds property. There was a huge difference in numbers among these parameters explaining the poor conditions of women in all these regards. Then some of the Property legislations for women were discussed in detail such as,

- a. Legal Services Authority Act and the Free Legal aid for women,
- b. Hindu Succession Act, 1956,
- c. Shariat Law,
- d. Indian Succession Act, 1925 etc.,

After discussing the important provisions of all these legislations, she moved on to the PCPNDT – Pre-conception Pre Natal Diagnostic Technique that talks about the punishments against the sex selective abortions. She has also touched the other legislations such as,

- i. Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act, 1971,
- ii. Child Marriage Restraint Act, 2006.

Her speech portrayed the position of women and their rights in this modern age and gave excellent piece of her mind regarding the need to be patient and steady in taking any life decision. She spoke to the students not just as a lawyer but as a woman, this created a great impact on the students who promised her to be wise and clear in all their life endeavours. The entire lecture was an awe-inspiring and loaded with information that the students had a lot to take at the end of the day.

ADOPT A TREE ON CAMPUS-GREEN ENVIRO LEAGUE

To increase the green cover across the college the league planted 70 trees and ornamental plants marking the platinum jubilee celebration of the college. Students are involved in watering and maintenance of the plants on a regular basis thereby motivating the entire student community to maintain a cleaner and greener environment in the campus. Trees planted by them are evaluated at the end of academic year and the students efforts were rewarded.

INAUGURATION OF CCC

Number of Participants: 410

The Inaugural of Citizen Consumer Club was held on July 29, 2017. Mr. Anton Paiva, Assistant Commissioner, Department of Civil Supplies and Consumer Protection, Government of Tamil Nadu and Mrs. J. Vijayathilagam, Manager, Department of Civil Supplies and Consumer Protection, Government of Tamil Nadu were the Guests of Honour. In his inaugural speech, Mr. L. Singaram discussed with the students about the initiative taken by the Government of Tamil Nadu to switch to smart card for closer monitoring of the PDS as it helps to eliminate complaints of double billing as well as bogus billing by fair price shops. Tmt. J. Vijayathilagam threw light on the current year's theme of the club "The Changing Role of Women and Consumerism" and stressed on the increasing need to educate female consumers about consumer protection and awareness. Street plays were staged by 9 teams and winners were given prizes.

Lighting the Kuthuvilaku for Inaugural of Madras Week Exhibition

The Principal and Secretary of Ethiraj College for Women, Dr. A. Nirmala welcomed the gathering. She spoke about the importance of inculcating a sense of history among the students of the College. Dr. Sheela Kirubakaram, Vice Principal - Aided, Associate Professor and Head of the Department, History, Tourism and Travel Management provided an overview of the Madras Day Celebrations this year.

This was followed by the Presidential Address by the Chairman of the Ethiraj College Trust, Thiru. V.M. Muralidharan. He spoke about the importance of the History of Chennai, and the spirit of togetherness that is the hallmark of the city. Citing certain incidents of his childhood he said that Chennai was an extraordinary city that always rises to the occasion without any discriminations of creed or economic status.

His address was followed by that of the Chief Guest eminent motivational speaker and mentor Ms. Nina John who kept the audience on a lively spirit with her speech on "Status of Women in Chennai – Past, Present and Future. Recalling the contributions to the cause of women's emancipation she spoke of the necessity of studying their history. She urged the students and the younger generation to stand for their rights and take the city to greater heights.
