Street Play on Effects and Impact of Demonetisation (2016-17)

Date: 14th and 15th February, 2017

No.of students participated: 180 students

The Department of Bank Management structured two days programme on the topic “Effects and Impact of Demonetisation”. Street play was staged to create awareness on demonetisation and charts on same were displayed throughout the Campus. In connection with the above, a Panel Discussion was also organised. Students of the Department participated in discussion; the moderator Mr. Sathya Kumar, Chartered Accountant by profession, Advisor, Debater, Academician, Social Activist and a Mentor to students by passion deliberated on the immediate and long term benefits of demonetisation. Students got an insight into short-term costs and long-term gains of demonetisation. They were hopeful about the corrupt-free India.

ED BAZAAR 2016-17

Date: 22nd February 2017

No. of Participants: 600

As a part of empowering and elevating the quotient of Women Entrepreneurs in the society. The Department of Bank management organized ED-BAZAAR, on 22nd February 2017, in its premises. The Bazaar was inaugurated by Ms. Pramad Jandhyala, Co-founder Director of LatentView Analytics, Chennai, India. The Bazaar endeavors at sharpening polishing the minds of young and potential entrepreneurs. The bazaar carried around 120 stalls with a participation of up to 600 students. The students of the college were given a prospect to set up a venture of their choice, comprising stalls of products, services and food of self made and trading nature. The prices of the products ranged from Rs.5 to Rs.5000. There was participation from students of other women colleges like SIET, MOP Vaishnav and Anna Adarsh and the invitation was also extended to Spastic societies. The most innovative, efficient and profitable teams were encouraged and felicitated with attractive prizes at the end of the day.

ANANDHAM Illam– OLD AGE HOME – OUTREACH PROGRAMME

Date: 10.2.2017

Number of Participants: 25

Students of Biochemistry department visited an Old age Home – Anandham , Ambattur Chennai on 10th February 2017. Old clothes and grocery were distributed. Games and cultural programmes were organised for the senior residents. Spirit of the elders was truly inspiring. The elders shared their thoughts and their feelings and advised the students that age were no barrier to learning and motivated the students to study well.

HERITAGE SITE CLEAN UP - FORT ST.GEORGE CHENNAI

Date: 19th-25th November, 2016

No.of participants: 20

As part of Heritage Week Celebrations, (November 19th -25th 2016) a clean-up was organised by Cycling yogis in collaboration with the Archaeological Survey of India, Government of India, Cycling Yogis is a non – profit organisation founded by Mr. Ramanujar Moulana, with common cause for cycling and respecting heritage.

One of the biggest heritage conservation has to overcome is the vegetation, which develops, grow on the Heritage Structure through natural dispersal of seeds through birds, insects and winds etc. Thus, the growth of wild vegetation weakens the structure therefore cleaning up the wild vegetation becomes a routine activity and an important requirement. Focusing on this aspect staffs and 20 students of the department took active part in the clean-up, which included cleaning of partially covered wild vegetation, collection of cleared wild vegetation around the demarcated cleanup area in Fort St.George, disposal of the waste in the designated dumping area.
