Case Study Competition 2018

Date: 6th March 2018

No.of students participated: 169

The Department of Bank Management, International Skill Development Corporation (ISDC) and Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA) jointly organised a case study competition on the 6th of March 2018.. The objective of the competition was to prepare and empower the students to face the challenges of the competitive corporate world they would enter after their graduation. The competition was judged by Mr. M. Sathya Kumar, Founder & CEO, Tycoon+ Advisors,, Mr. M. Abhishek, Partner, Victor Grace & Co. and Mr. K. RaviShankar, Faculty CIMA. Mr. M. Sathya Kumar while lauding efforts of the organisers suggested that more of such competitions have to be conducted in all the colleges all over TamilNadu on diverse theme such as entrepreneurship and empowerment. Mr. M. Abhishek urged the students to make utmost use of opportunities like these to hone their skills. Mr. K. Ravi Shankar appreciated the zeal and enthusiasm of the participants and the critical thinking exhibited in their presentations.

ED Bazaar 2017-18

Date: February 15, 2018

No. of Participants: 850

ED Bazaar was hosted by the Department of Bank Management on February 15, 2018. Mrs. Shanu Bellani, Proprietor of Shanu's Boutique who is an alumna of the department inaugurated the same along with Mrs. Kalpana Muralidharan. The day witnessed participation of more than 850 students including other city colleges. Around 142 stalls displayed Self Made, Trading and Food Products. Competition for Self made Products were organised and cash prizes were awarded to the winners. The students had put up stalls individually, also in clusters, which enabled them to understand the various panels of entrepreneurship such as pooling of capital, innovation, team work, co-operative attitude towards a common objective and most importantly profit sharing.

AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON PERSONAL HYGIENE AND CLEANLINESS

Date: 28th August 2017

No. of Participants: 16

On August 28, 2017, an awareness programme was conducted by students and staff of Department of Microbiology, Ethiraj College for Women at N.K. Thirumalachariar School. About 16 students and 3 teachers of the department were instrumental in organising the program. This awareness programme was conducted to inculcate the habit of personal hygiene and cleanliness amongst the students of Grade 8 and 9.

The programme started with an invocation song sung by the students of III B.Sc. Microbiology. It was followed by an introduction by Fatema Basuwala of II M.Sc. Applied Microbiology. The first presentation on personal hygiene was done by B. Saraswathi and S. Mohana Priya which was a very interactive session.

It was followed by a skit on personal hygiene and cleanliness by the students of III B.Sc. It was well received by the students and teachers of the school. N. Ragave of II M.Sc. also interacted with the students and taught them about the importance of exercise.

The final presentation on Cleanliness in School and Environment was done by S. Lakshmi Priya and M. Aparna of II M.Sc. which taught the students the importance of a clean environment. It was followed by a motivational speech by Dr.V.Gayathri, Assistant Professor, Department of Microbiology.

Each class was then presented with an anti-germ hand wash after teaching the students the importance of washing hands. The vote of thanks was given by N. Ragave of II. M.Sc. followed by the national anthem. Thus, the event was a success and it received positive responses.

Music therapy ADYAR CANCER INSTITUTE

Date: 18/12/2017

No.of participants: 4

The objective of the programme was to address physical, emotional, cognitive and social needs of cancer patients. Its purpose was to create an ambience of felicity among the patients and help in betterment of their mental and social state.

MUSIC THERAPY

This activity aims at providing music therapy to the patients of Adyar Cancer Institute, who can benefit from therapeutic aspects of music. Music is used to address physical, emotional, cognitive, and social needs of patients of all ages and abilities. Music promotes wellness, manage stress, alleviate pain, express feelings, enhance memory, improve communication, and promote physical rehabilitation.

Music therapy is an effective method of supporting cancer care for patients at various stages of the disease and is practiced with individual patients as well as patient groups. It can be also included for planning programs of treatment and rehabilitation and hope to promote wellness, improve physical and emotional well-being and the quality of life among the patients.

This program was done in collaboration with Ashwin Maharaja Foundation, Chennai which coordinates the music therapy as a whole. The student singers of Department of Commerce participated enthusiastically in this program and lent their voice for good cause.
